

DENVER INDIAN FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

12 week
program

NURTURING PARENTING PROGRAM

Blending traditional Native American beliefs and practices with Nurturing Parenting

Every Tuesday from 9:00-11:00am at DIFRC

- The Nurturing Parenting Program (NPP) will meet CPS requirements
- Participants will receive a NPP manual and weekly assignments at program intake
- NPP is provided for free to families
- The group is open to 15 participants at time
- NPP is designed to be culturally specific to Native American families or families with Native American children (Non-Native families may join)

Classes are held at:

Denver Indian Family Resource Center

1633 Fillmore Street, GL2
Denver, CO 80206

- Tuesday's | 9:00-11:00am
- 12 week program
- Class cohorts are ongoing
- In person and virtual options
- Weekly attendance is required

To Register Contact:

Markie Green, National NPP Trainer
720-500-1007 | mgreen@difrc.org

Nurturing Parenting®
Established 1983

Denver Indian
Family Resource Center